The Karlovy Vary Region is a region practically created for children. Whether you have untiring rascals, curious little scientists, or animal lovers at home, you cannot go wrong here. Let them romp about on playgrounds and attractions, enter the world of fairy tales, or discover something new about nature. Show them the beauty of our country and discover places that will enchant you, as well. Plan a family trip that they will never forget.

Seeing Animals

Sinking your fingers into an animal's velvety coat of fur is the best cure for a bad mood. An animal's grateful gaze turns a frown upside down even with the greatest of grouches. Not to mention swinging up into the saddle or trying out what farm life is like! All of this and more can be experienced here.

1

OSTROV ECOLOGY CENTRE

In this small paradise for animals, you will have sheep, kids, and other four-legged farm dwellers at the tips of your fingers. You can also see birds of prey or rodents, and a wide spectrum of fish and other colourful animals can be seen underwater. Once your legs get tired, you can take a leisurely rest in the nearby relaxation garden while your children will be having fun in the turtle and guinea pig pen.

DIANA MINI-ZOO AND BUTTERFLY HOUSE

If you are planning to visit the legendary Diana Lookout Tower in Karlovy Vary, do not forget to take your children to visit the mini-zoo and the tropical gardens with exotic butterflies from around the world. You can admire hundreds of specimens of these colourful beings, some with a wingspan of up to 20 cm, in quite close proximity; you will not find any barriers here! Be sure to always have your camera ready in case one of them decides to rest on your shoulder. A comfortable funicular goes up to the lookout tower.

KOZODOJ ORGANIC FARM

To visit this small family farm is an experience you will never forget. Hidden in the meanders of the Rolava River, it offers visitors a peek into the life of all types of animals, from horses, to donkeys and pigs, and even llamas. The farmers take breeding quite seriously, and they will explain everything from the basics of animal needs, their usefulness for man, and even the characters each one has or how the world looks like from a horse's perspective, for instance.

ST LINHART GAME RESERVE

Grab a pine cone off a tree just under its crown while deer are at pasture under your feet? Only in the fairy-tale game reserve of St Linhart, interlaced with a system of suspension bridges taking you up to as much as six metres high, where you can easily explore life in the game reserve below. If this should not be enough for you, try taking the trail in the trees, with some observation huts located 15 metres above ground. A place created for adventurous natures.

HORY FARM

At Hory Farm, it is possible to stick your fingers into the velvety fur of a deer or to see a rare and mysterious black fallow-deer with your own eyes. The farm is situated in the enchanting countryside halfway between Karlovy Vary and Loket. Hikers, bikers, and especially families with children will find asylum here in the heart of the Ore Mountain nature, from where one can venture out to visit the most famous places in the Karlovy Vary Region. The farm offers accommodation, board, and a horseback riding training ground.

AMERIKA ZOO PARK

Not far from Františkovy Lázně, large surfaces of water spread out over the countryside, and by them you can find the Amerika Zoo Park, which breeds friendly raccoons, ponies, llamas, and water animals. The park is freely accessible, and suitable for both sports activities and for relaxation. Children will romp about the animal pens or on the playground with many attractions, while you can enjoy a coffee in peace. Then, you can all venture out onto the water, sailing, for instance, to the nearby bio-reservation, which is the habitat for many types of birds. A touristic train rides here from the town.

HORSEBACK RIDING – PEGAS DĚPOLTVICE

Would you like to experience life in a château and see nature from the saddle? All you have to do is to sleep overnight at the Pegas Děpoltovice Complex. The building of the guest house, where even German chancellor Otto von Bismarck stayed for a time, remains true to its original appearance dating to the 18th century. A sandbox or a summer garden with the possibility of barbecuing is available. Children three years of age and up can try horseback riding, and the château carriage and personal driver will be at your service, just as if you, too, were to be a member of nobility.

ŽÍROVICE BUTTERFLY HOUSE

At the entrance, the heat, the humidity, and the rustle of wings in the air will immediately rein you into the magical world of this butterfly kingdom, full of colours and life. Little scientists will enjoy the chance of viewing the life-cycle of these fragile beings, beginning with the egg and ending with the adult specimen in its natural habitat of a tropical hothouse. Collectors can create their own collection of these “flying gemstones” directly on site.

For Amusement

There are many ways of acting silly in the Karlovy Vary Region. For instance, on a trampoline, on an obstacle course, or perhaps sailing under a pirate flag and searching for treasure. And while little rascals go wild, their parents can take a small break on the beach, in a salt cave, or with a cup of good coffee. Are you enticed yet?

12 HOPA HOPA AMUSEMENT CENTRE

Are you looking for a modern and greatly equipped children's centre? The Hopa Hopa complex offers a giant balloon slide, a toboggan, electric cars, a spider web, and oodles of other attractions for younger and older children. Prepare an unforgettable birthday party for them in the parlour, or have them try out the new game consoles. And while they will carry on, hide away in the relaxation corner with plasma TVs and tasty refreshments.

OHŘE CYCLE PATH

This regional cycle path with a length of 110 kilometres that continues the German Wallenstein Cycle Path invites you to take a ride through the picturesque Ohře River valley. The cycle path connects all parts of the Karlovy Vary Region. You will ride through numerous historical and interesting sites, such as Loket or Svatoš Rocks, you will visit both major towns and calm villages, and mainly, you will spend the day in the therapeutic environment of the nature of the Karlovy Vary Region. The path leads along forest paths and municipal roads.

16

KRAJINKA SPORTS AND RECREATION GROUNDS

These recreation grounds extend from the Skalka Reservoir all the way to Cheb Castle, practically inviting you to spend all day there. You will feel the burn at the athletic stadium, you will explore your surroundings from the seat of the bicycle you have rented, and finally, you can perhaps grill something to eat on our picnic lawn. Little rascals will love to play on the high ropes course, and athletes will be pleased by several multi-purpose sports grounds. Plus, the local amphitheatre hosts cultural and artistic events.

BOAT TRANSPORT UNDER LOKET CASTLE

Get under the skin of sailors or pirates, and enjoy the view of Locket Castle from the deck of a small cruise boat. Cruises take place from the spring until the autumn, and that even in the hottest of summer days when there is very little water in the river. The boat has a capacity of twelve people, and it takes almost a half an hour to circumnavigate the castle. An ideal accompaniment to your visit to the castle or a variegation to the programme of a group of day trippers.

SOOS NATURE RESERVE

North of Františkovy Lázně, you will find an odd moon-scape, as if from another world. Mud volcanoes sourcing from the very centre of the Earth, mysterious marshes full of atypical salt-tolerant plants, or the unique peak created from heaped-up lake algae – these are all found at the Soos Nature Reserve, accessible through the bed of the dried-up salt lake. The ground, dyed in hues of yellow and white by mineral salts, invites you to an uncommon visit to the remains of prehistoric times. You can also learn about the nature reserve and its surroundings in the museum exhibit.

BABY JESUS TRAIL

Deep in the poetic landscape of the Ore Mountains lies the little town of Boží Dar (God's Gift), and from it the legendary Baby Jesus Trail winds its way through forests and valleys. It leads through thirteen stops at the houses of Baby Jesus' helpers, where children can expect interesting and exciting tasks. At the end of the journey, every participant will receive a small gift as a reward, even in case that they incorrectly solve any of the tasks. Baby Jesus is no miser.

ORE MOUNTAIN LEGENDS TRAIL

This mythical trail leads through the Ore Mountain countryside, going from one fairy tale to another, and even further. The tales of old residents, magical grandfathers and grandmothers, and other Ore Mountain beings will accompany you along the entire trail, and will ignite many a child's imagination. Your steps will be guarded by the wooden statues of bizarre beings, so encountering a "permoník" gnome or a wild forest man will be no rarity. The kilometre-long route is easily conquered even by the youngest of children.

THE HELLISH CELLARS OF ŽLUTICE

The town of Žlutice spreads out above the picturesque valley of the Střela River in Western Bohemia. It offers many historical and cultural monuments, but also a cellar full of devils. This path leads through medieval underground corridors of up to three subterranean stories, which in the past have become the favourite abode of all types of horny hell-dwellers. Believe it or not, they live there to this day, and their main pastime is guiding visitors and guarding a whole range of statues stored in the local lapidarium.

Down into the Mines

What is hidden in the mysterious and majestic shafts under the surface of the Earth? The echoes of times past, when minerals were mined with the help of sweaty faces, explosives, and pickaxes. Stories of man's struggle with indomitable elements. Legends that you, too, can now discover.

The worldwide unique Erzgebirge/Krušnohoří Mining Cultural Landscape in the region of the Ore Mountains is aspiring to be included on the list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

MAURITIUS MINE

This complex set of underground corridors leading into a humongous dome with a lake welcomes the visitors of Mauritius Mine, one of the most significant mining monuments in the Czech Republic. One can observe several species of bats in the depths of the most famous tin mine of the Ore Mountains, in which tin was continuously mined for four hundred years, and on the surface near the mine is the geologically interesting area known as "Schneppova pinka/Schnepp's Hollow".

Put on your helmet, turn on your miner's lamp, and venture into the depths of Jeroným Mine, dating to the 15th century. In the central part, you can find preserved chambers dating to the 16th century, as well as resting spots and protrusions. Children will surely be excited by the residue of old mining methods, when miners used to so-called "fire-set" the mine walls, and then chipped away at the cooled rock with iron instruments. There is a stable temperature of approximately 8 degrees in the mine, so it is necessary to dress warmly.
